FOREWORD

We, the Staff of Los Tejas, have tried to catch and hold in a treasure chest for future ears the echo of our hurrying footsteps, the life, and laughter of our Overton High. We have also tried to make you realize that we are at war by picturing on the divisional pages the most powerful and essential weapons of our armed forces. Much materiel must be produced and all of us must be ready to assume responsibilities which are ours to assist in bringing about victory.

Dear Students and Teachers:

The supreme test for our "Way of Life" is at hand. Our nation is in a conflict in which you and I must take our respective parts. Sacrifices must be made; even Life must be given. The total cost in human resources may never be known. You and I will share in that responsibility whatever it may be.

Our type of Home, Church, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness is worth the cost however great. The same kind of spirit that came to you and me in our heritage must be exemplified, if these ideals are to be maintained. May God's blessings be with each of you always.

Sincerely,

E. H. Cleveland

BLANCHE COHAGEN

P R I N C I P A L

To the Students:

The present world conflict should cause us to give serious thought to our democratic ideals and institutions. Your student activities, of which this yearbook is a definite part, are agencies of group participation and self expression. These activities constitute present life situations and preparation for life in a democracy. Our country is fighting to preserve these institutions and we know that the students of the Overton Schools will do their part toward the perpetuation of the democratic way of life.

Best wishes for your future,

L. D. Todd

JOY FULTON
Secretary

P R I N C I P A L

Students:

As another year comes to a close, I am glad to have this opportunity to say that association with you has been a pleasure.

For those of you who are graduating, I wish a happy and successful life beyond your school years. I shall look forward to another pleasant year with you who are coming back next year.

Sincerely yours,

G. H. Andrews

CLAUDE NEELY

GUIDANCE DIRECTOR

To Students:

It is with greatest pleasure that I sit at my desk and address a message to you-a Los Tejas reader. I have enjoyed the hours we have spent together working on problems related to your present school experience and future welfare. I wish to take this means of expressing to each of you my best wishes for a useful and successful life. I would like for each of you to know that the facilities of our school are yours to comm- and even though you have graduated or have gone on to other schools. My key thought for the year I pass on to you. "If you receive a favor- remember it; if you bestow one-forget it."

Sincerely,

E. A. Brodhead

An aerial, black and white photograph of a U.S. Naval Air Station. A long runway stretches diagonally from the bottom left towards the top right. A large formation of aircraft, possibly biplanes, is in flight along the runway, leaving a series of white smoke trails. Several other aircraft are parked or taxiing on the tarmac. The sky is filled with large, fluffy clouds. The overall tone is historical and official.

CLASS SONG

Tonight the Senior Class of O. H. S.
Is putting all its books away.
We're proud to graduate,
But still we're kind of blue
For we hate to leave our school and friends so true.
From here our ways will part
They'll go we know not where
But those precious memories we'll always share,
So tonight the Senior Class of '42
Bids farewell but not goodbye to you.

OVERTON 0 HENDERSON 0

The Overton Mustangs began the season against the Henderson Lions to keep up the tradition that, even though Henderson may beat Overton in anything else, if you put eleven Overton boys against eleven Henderson boys, Overton will remain supreme. The tradition of winning every season opener since there has been an Overton Football team was also broken. Both teams worked hard, but neither crossed the other's goal line. Even though both teams had several chances to score, neither was able to out charge the other's line. Four lettermen, Jack Huffman, Bill Wood, Bailey Jarvis, and Ernie Baker began the game. The rest of the team was made up of newcomer's and Squadmen, which were Keith Lewis, Estel Laughlin, Darrell Wilson, Jere Jean Lewis, James Ward, O. A. Eves, & Hubert Eves. Overton led by ten first downs to two for Henderson.

OVERTON 0 ARP 7

Playing in a steady downpour that lasted through three quarters of the game, the Arp Tigers downed the Mustangs 7 to 0 in a non-conference game. Both teams saw scoring opportunities fade as the wet, slippery ball skidded from the hands of the backs. Paul DeLaune furnished the touchdown with a 37 yard jaunt through the middle of the Mustang line in the opening quarter. Another line smash netted the extra point. Through the first half, Arp held the upper-hand of the game, however, after the half the Ponies came to life and with Jarvis, Lewis, and Wilson driving through the Mustangs, deep into Arp territory only to lose by fumbles of the water-logged ball. Both teams gave a good account of themselves with plays that went over in spite of the weather.

OVERTON 12 TROUP 0

After getting off to a bad start in the season the Mustangs were finally able to score some points. This was the team's first conference game and it looked as if the team had a good start. Two blocked punts paved the way for the Overton touchdowns. In the first quarter the Mustangs blocked a punt and Bailey Jarvis carried the ball across on second down for the score. Early in the final period Laughlin, left guard, crashed through to block one of Thompson's punts on the Troup 40 yard line and carried the ball for another touchdown. Another Overton touchdown was nullified by a penalty in the third quarter. The touchdown was made on a double reverse. Troup held its own with the favored Mustangs, and led in first downs, 6 to 4, with Thompson, kicking barefooted and Red Wilson leading the attack.

OVERTON 24 SALEM 6

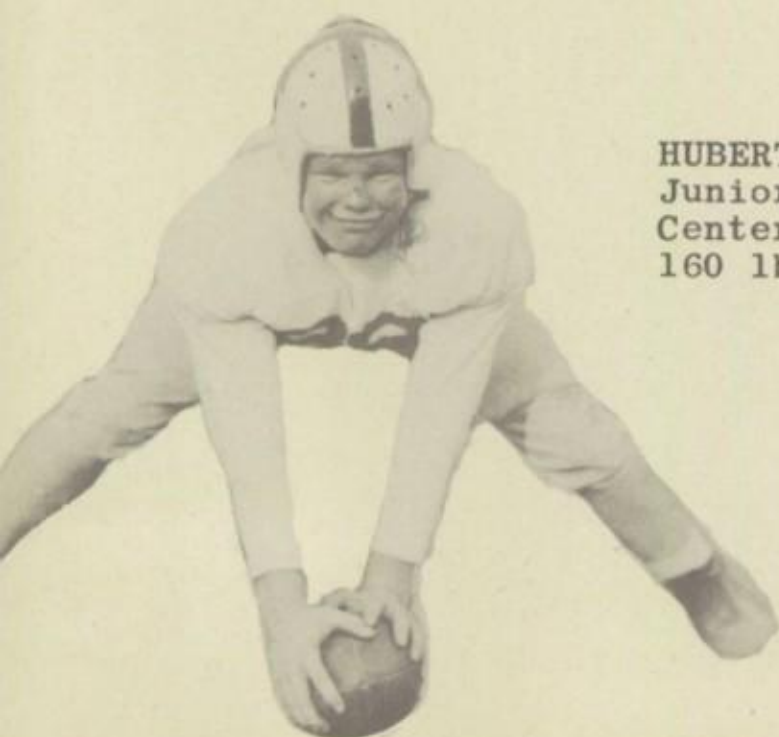

The highly favored Mustangs found easy picking and rolled over the Salem Eagles 24 to 6. Bailey Jarvis scored three touchdowns and Jere Jean Lewis one. Lewis made the first touchdown after the Salem 1. Jarvis made two touchdowns from passes by Baker and scored the final tally late in the fourth period after Lewis broke loose on a 55 yard run to the Salem three. Salem scored their lone counter after a fumbled punt on the Overton 22 placed the Eagles in possession. The Eagles moved the ball to the Mustangs 1, where Carlisle went through for the score. The second string and the smaller boys got to play quite a bit in the game and showed that they had the true Overton spirit by holding back the Eagles and scoring once.

Both teams were in wonderful shape and was one of the cleanest fought games of the season. Overton had 15 first downs to 7 for L.C. and completed 16 of 28 passes for 193 yards. The Lions touchdowns were made by Jay, Hudson, Jay, and Metcalf. Walter Johnston converted the three extra points. During the second quarter Baker threw a series of passes to Jarvis, Huffman, and Laughlin giving the first down on the Lions 8. Jarvis skirted left end for Overton's first score. Coming back in the fourth quarter, the Mustangs marched 72 yards on seven consecutive passes. Jarvis took the last pass in the end zone for the ponies other touchdown. Baker converted the extra point. Both teams worked almost perfectly in their plays and kept the spectators on their toes.

OVERTON 0 CARLISLE 7

The Carlisle Indians defeated the Overton Mustangs 7 to 0 in a well fought victory. Both teams fought with determination and fire than had been witnessed from these two schools this season.

Jarvis and Wood in the Mustang backfield made some very good runs but failed to bring the ball close enough to the end zone to score. In the second period of the game Belcher and Hall of the Indians managed the backfield plays so that they made the only touchdown and extra point of the game. The Mustangs and the Indians each had 10 first downs. Dittmore, Belcher, and Hall made up the Indians offense and defense while O.A. Eves and Laughlin were good on defense and blocking for the Mustangs.

OVERTON 0 GASTON 40

The Gaston Red Devils, who later won the district and regional championships, trounced the Mustangs 40 to 0. Most of the first team was out the first quarter and some of the boys were out because of flu. The team was made up of subs and the team ran off a new single wing formation which the team had never before used. Nelson and Byrd led the Gaston offensive, and scored most of the points. Ernie Baker and Bailey Jarvis were missing from the backfield.

OVERTON 28 LONDON 24

On Thursday, November 20, the Mustangs concluded their season by a victory of the London Wildcats 28-24. London led the Overton Mustangs for over three quarters, but succumbed to a fourth quarter rally that netted the Ponies 15 points. Jere Jean Lewis climaxed a 66 yard Overton march in the first quarter with a plunge through the London 1 line for a touchdown. Ernie Baker drop-kicked the extra point. The score was 18-7 at the half in London's favor. After a pass from Baker to Laughlin, which ended on the 1 yard line, Baker went over for the second Overton Touchdown. Earl Immel recovered Bratton's fumble on the London 33 and Bailey Jarvis scored on a 7 yard double reverse five plays later. Because of London's nervousness, with the Mustangs one point ahead, the wildcats were caught in the end zone for a safety, putting Overton 3 points in the lead. Both teams scored later, with Stone and Bratton leading the wildcats in their attack. Overton ended the game with 12 first downs to six for London, and a victory of the most cherished game of the season.

BASKETBALL 1941-42 SEASON

From a glance at the season record of this year's Basketball team and the few number of games played one would think that something was wrong and that we had a very unsuccessful season. However, the success of a season is not tabulated points scored or games won. The basketball team was very inexperienced and consisted of many newcomers new to this sport. The shortness of the players handicapped them since nearly all the teams in this district have tall players. In spite of all shortcomings, Mr. Tyner did a grand job of coaching an inexperienced squad.

There were only two seniors who played basketball and saw quiet a bit of service. They were Darrell Wilson and Bobby Robinson. Most of the team was made up of Juniors and a very dependable freshman, Estel Laughlin. The Juniors were Jack Johnston, Jere Jean Lewis, Bailey Jarvis, Jack Berry, Ernie Baker, Otto Mullins, Joe Coop, and Eugene Alford. There were many other squad members who aided the team in many ways.

The season was cut short by the war when the district decided to abandon interscholastic sports to comply with the war efforts and the tire rationing. This did not, however, end basketball in the school, since, through the efforts of Mr. Tyner, Coach Allen, and Mr. Fields, and intramural basketball tournaments were carried on. No letters were awarded, but all of those participating received a benefit from playing basketball.

Dear Victoria,
You have meant more to me than I can tell you. That very first day I arrived it stands out, because you were the one that helped me.
You are so likable, capable and sweet that I know you will be happy in life. I wish you lots of luck and happiness and can truthfully say I am glad to have known you.
I hope we are always friends and can keep up our friendship wherever we are.
Lots of love to you,
Margaret Ann.
